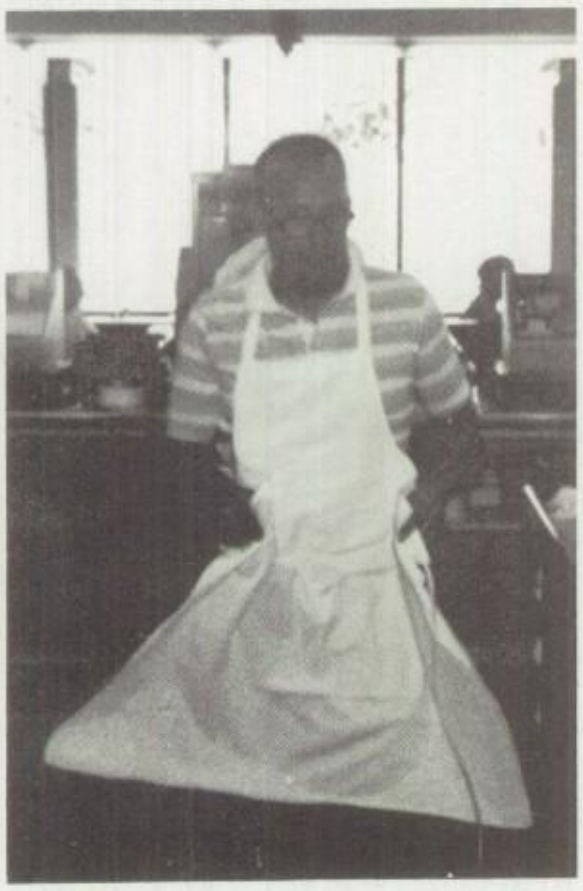
Harry Shutt



This year the Annual Staff would like to dedicate the annual to a person who has put so much time and effort into helping the people of Spencerville. He has supported both boys and girls athletics. And we feel he is an all-round terrific person. The 1977-78 Annual is in dedication to Harry Shutt. Thank you!

Time is the hours spent on things talked and preached and the unpleasant moments of trying to figure it all out.
But:
Time is the tomorrow we never reached.

IT MAY BE TOO LATE!

With words of wisdom from yesteryear
And the whole of the world on a string,
Bright eyes filled with a tiny tear
From the fear of what fate will bring.

Many thoughts deep in the mind
And many dreams within,
Dreams that some will never find
And dreams that will soon begin.

A little hope within the heart
Hope for the future to find,
A future that we're about to start
From the past we've left behind.

When out in the world, so big, yet lonely,
And most of our dreams have come true,
A little bit wiser and wishing only
For happiness our whole lives through.

Homecoming

The 1977-78 Homecoming queen Betsy Blythe stated that it was a dream come true after being crowned and it proved to be just that for her and her court. After viewing the game from the 50-yard line and going to the Talent Show Friday night, the queen, her court, and escorts prepared to be presented at the dance entitled "YOU LIGHT UP MY LIFE" Saturday night.

There Betsy was presented with the traditional dozen red roses and a trophy. It was truly a beautiful and romantic evening for everyone, and it will always be "a dream come true" for the lucky girl who becomes queen and her attendants.

Junior Class Play
UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE
November 18 and 19, 1977 at 8:00

"Hi, Teach!" are the first words to greet the attractive Sylvia Barrett. This is the moment for which she's worked so hard her first day teaching. There's a special happiness in walking into the still empty classroom and for the first time writing her name on the blackboard. Then her moment is shattered. Students pour into her classroom — curious, testing, challenging. Simultaneously there's a blizzard of paper work, warnings, contradictory orders and undecipherable instructions.

Frantic Sylvia begins to fear she doesn't even understand the language. An experienced teacher translates. "Keep on file in numerical order" means throw in the wastebasket. "Let it be a challenge" means you're stuck with it. "Interpersonal relationships" means a fight between kids. And "It has come to my attention" means you're in trouble.

Soon Sylvia finds herself the most involved person in the school — involved in the start of a romance, in a near war with a discipline — over — in the unexpected, sometimes heartbreaking problems of her students.

STORY OF THE PLAY

Here is a new version of one of the most humorous books written. In this dramatization, the Yankee from Connecticut is a young engineer just out of college and anxious to try his hand at every kind of mechanical device. He is knocked out cold by one of his experiments and wakes up to find himself in the Court of King Arthur. From then on, the striking contrasts between the old and the new develop into a series of ludicrous events which will satisfy those audiences wanting side-splitting humor combined with just a small undercurrent of elemental truths. Television, radio, aviation, football and even the corner drugstore find their way into the kingdom of Arthur through the influence of the enterprising young engineer — who eventually finds himself in hot water. But all's well that ends well — and the CONNECTICUT YANKEE is no exception. Here is that different type of play you've been looking for, and we'll guarantee it to be the brightest spot on your production schedule. It's simple to produce, and will appeal to audiences of any sort whatever.
